

MAGNIFY CHRIST,
BUILD GREAT COMMISSIONARIES

Volume 40, Number 6

Newsletter of Beech Haven Baptist Church

June 2018

From the Pastor's Pen

Family of Great Commissionaries:

The late Angel Martinez has become one of my favorite evangelists and preachers to read. He passed away about 20 years ago but made an enormous impact on local churches. He was the first to be invited to preach the 1949 Los Angeles area-wide crusade. He declined, commenting that his ministry was with the local church. The second man they invited you know of-Billy Graham. Angel Martinez was so humble he stepped aside, and the world has been different ever since.

In one message he stated "one thing that astounds me about the love of our Savior is it's omniscience. He knows everything about us, and he loves us. He knows the past. We have a tendency to forget the past, especially the things that we do not like about ourselves. Jesus knows our past and he loves us still. Not only that, he knows the future. The future is unknown to us, but he is conversant with your every sin, every failure, every evil thought, and every sinful act that we are going to commit from point now until point death, and he still loves us. Human loves are built on ignorance. We love others because we do not know too much about them, and they do not know too much about us. But Jesus knows the past and the future, and, knowing all of that, he still opens wide his arms and invites us to come to him and be saved" (Unused Perfume, 57).

From the Pastor's Pen

I saw love demonstrated my first night in Ixchiguan, Guatemala. The missionary I stayed with invited a couple of men to join six others of us for dinner. These men have been thrown out of their homes for alcohol problems (Sebastian and Alfonso, two Tajumulco Mam, see picture below). Broken and lonely they joined us, nervous about being surrounded by preachers and missionaries.

During dinner, Pastor Rudolpho Mendez of Indiantown, Florida and I shared God's love with these men. We told them of John 3:16 and 2 Corinthians 5:21. We told them they are in the world, so God's love is for them! We shared about the great exchange at Calvary of our sins to Jesus and Jesus' righteousness to us who trust Him, then we encouraged them to call out to God like he loves them and always will. They did, and you should have heard the sinner's prayer that gushed out of them. A revival broke out amongst us with eight men around the table trembling and rejoicing over the love of God.

Overcoming alcohol addiction is a lifelong effort. Sebastian and Alfonso will struggle. Both men will probably struggle with relapses, temptation, discouragement, and loneliness. They will have to learn a new way of handling their sorrows and fears. But as they struggle, they will never struggle apart from God's love.

God's love for our world needs to define how we view the Sebastians and Alfonsos of the world. His love should define how we view God and how we view church ministry. For this reason, the love of God will define how we shape our budget and give to missions. The love of God will define our calendar. The love of God will define what we do with our worship center, facilities, and property.

On Sunday June 24, in a called church conference, I ask our Great Commissionary church to, upon recommendation of our deacons, to compose a committee that will study, design, and oversee the implementation of a plan to use our property, facilities, and location to attract and reach our whole community with God's love. (See page 1 for more information).

How can our property, facilities, and location "shout" out to our community? "God loves you! Come here to Beech Haven and worship Him and learn more about Him." Studying, designing, recommending, and overseeing a plan to answer that question will be this committee's task. At several points we will seek your input, the input of specialists, and mostly the input of God's Spirit.

All this because God loves the world, and this causes me to say . . .

I Stand Amazed,
David Mills

Worship Ministry Notes

"...be transformed by the renewing of your minds..."

Romans 12:2

On our way home from the UK a few weeks ago, I did my best to force myself to get accustomed back into Eastern Standard Time quickly. It took some effort to stay awake the first day back, but the jetlag did not last too long. Others, however, let their sleep patterns match UK time for days, even weeks, after returning. My parents, for instance, said that they regularly woke up wanting breakfast at 2 AM, which is 7 AM in the UK, and they were ready for bed by 5 pm (10 PM back in London).

Most of us thrive on routine. We get up about the same time and go to bed about the same time every day. Throw that schedule off by five hours, and problems can easily arise. However, a regular routine presents its own challenges, especially in our efforts to fan into flame our passion for following Christ.

You see, while our enemy is often effective at tempting us to fail in stunning ways, he is also quite effective at lulling us into a routine that dulls our sensitivity to the Spirit; a routine that quietly places more trust on our self than on our Savior. Often, this occurs unintentionally – as we forget to pray, or allow ourselves to become too busy to spend time reading the Word. We must therefore be on our guard not only against the “big” temptations, but also against the slow tug that pulls us away from total dependency upon the Lord.

Every day, it is crucial, then, that we not only spend time intaking God’s word, but that we seek to “be transformed by the renewing of [our] minds,” as Paul says in Romans 12:2. Put another way, this means seeing life through Christ’s eyes. It involves recognizing our sinfulness (and confessing our sins), accepting His grace, and yielding to His control. Just one verse before, Paul describes it as being “a living sacrifice.” And this sacrifice is then described as your “true worship.”

Until we see Christ face to face, there will not be a day when such a transformation is not needed. Even the most godly among us ought to regularly examine our hearts and minds and realign them with Christ. Thankfully, because of the abundant and amazing grace He provides, we’re never too far away to draw near to God. Whether we’ve sinned dramatically, or slowly allowed our heart to grow quietly cold, our Savior can re-create us. He can transform us back into His likeness.

And when we’re transformed, when we see life as He desires, we can’t help but respond in worship, in discipleship, and in evangelism. May we therefore always be eager to renew our mind to match that of our Lord.

- Tim

Share the Word. Together. is an initiative of LifeWay Christian Stores and President Thom S. Rainer to mobilize local churches to take the Word of God into their communities. Nothing has the power to change lives like God’s Word, so LifeWay wants to make it simple for church members to share it with the people around them.

Beech Haven will participate in this initiative from June 25 - June 30. Members are encouraged to stop by the LifeWay Christian Store at Epps Bridge during that week to pick up a free copy of a CSB personal gift Bible. Church members then give the Bible to an unchurched friend, coworker, or neighbor.

The goal for this free Bible giveaway is to start gospel conversations and spark invitations to a weekend worship service or Bible study.

Worship Center Renovation Timeline

Dr. Mills has announced his desire for renovating the Worship Center and has discussed it with the Deacons, the four standing committees, and the Prayer Team. Here is a broad timeline for that project:

Spring 2018	Church-wide Prayer
Summer 2018	Vision Stoking & Casting
Summer 2018	Formation of Renovation Committee by the church
Fall 2018	Church Input & Feedback on Vision
Winter 2018—Summer 2019	Initial Drafting & Church Feedback
Fall 2019	Finalization of Plans
Winter 2020	Church Votes on Plans
Spring 2020	Financial Campaign/Renovation

These plans may accelerate or slow down but each step will be taken. In the next few months, look for information and opportunities to join the church in praying for God’s direction collectively and individually about how a renovation can further our mission to make the people of the Athens area into missionaries.
